

ISLAND WINE MERCHANDISER

DOUBLE YOUR IMPACT WITH BACK-TO-BACK ISLAND WINE DISPLAY

For serving a wide range of consumer tastes in one convenient display, Royston's high-capacity, two-way island wine merchandiser puts your many wine varieties at the customer's fingertips. Accommodating 22 cases of wine, it's perfect for easy shopping of assorted brands, types and flavors, and for promoting individual selections.

Distinctively designed, this handsome, two-tone commercial wine rack is both eye-catching and functional. Each side of the six-foot-tall island holds up to 132 standard-sized bottles – 11 presented upright at eye level across the top, and the rest lying cork-out in 11 corresponding, neatly stacked columns below. You can use this symmetrical island as a freestanding wine display or grouped with additional island wine merchandisers to create their own aisles.

FEATURES

- Top display shelves are illuminated by recessed LED lighting, for showcasing popular brands or sale items; discreet metal guardrails protect upright display bottles, reducing chance of accidental breakage
- Complete merchandiser holds up to 264 standard-sized wine bottles – 132 on each side – safely and securely
- Base display holds 121 bottles individually stored in laydown fashion on durable metal rack
- Unit features matte black powdercoat and teakwood laminate finish
- Sturdy construction and easy to assemble; hardware and instructions included

- Base display on each side stands nearly 49.5" tall and holds 121 bottles individually stored in laydown fashion on durable metal rack (11 x 11 grid)
- Total structure measures 72"H x 50"W x 25"D, with nearly 12.5" of depth on each of the two display sides

